Agenda Items

9:00 A.M.		Anna Levina, MSHRD, MBA – LAC Mental Health PASMA South Board President
9:04 A.M.		Dick Monod De Froideville PASMA South Legislative Advisor
9:11 A.M.		Mary Ann Pham – LAC Mental Health PASMA South Board Treasurer
9:15 A.M.		Water Damage Losses Based On The IICRC S500 & S520 Guidelines And Standards And Discussion Of Common Misconceptions The goal of this presentation is to learn how to spot a bad mitigation company, improve controls and reduce risks related to water damage projects. We will discuss the IICRC S500 & S520 Standards and Guidelines and how these standards are often misapplied and/or misunderstood. This presentation and discussion will also address mitigation techniques, new technologies and alternatives to the common 'cut-n-gut' approach often thought to be necessary. Mitigation, by definition, should include an effort to reduce the time and cost associated with water damage issues.
10:55 A.M.		Share Your Challenges and Best Practices! Open forum for attendees!
11:05 AM		Meeting is Adjourned! Thank you for your participation

About the Presenter...

For over 25 years Thom Hoge (sounds like "hoagie") has developed had a successful career as business consultant in various industries. In 2010, Thom began to specialize in emergency mitigation industry. This led to the purchase of his first Servpro franchise – Servpro of Downey. He now owns eight (8) Servpro franchises throughout LA & Orange County.

Thom has spent the last 10+ years working with Insurance Companies, Attorneys, TPA's, Risk Management Dept and Health & Safety Teams. Thom believes that "Information sharing" is the key to being a good partner. Helping others to identify possible misconduct or fraudulent actions by a mitigation company(s) improves the overall industry.

Thom spends most of his time running Servpro business and doing active investigations for various Special Investigation Unit (SIU) teams. But Thom really enjoys sharing information with others at speaking events like this. Today Thom is also joined by Matt Wilson, a Servpro business partner and a certified IICRC Instructor for WRT & ASD certifications.
